TRAVELLERS SAY BULGARIA QUIET; FIND MUNITIONS

It is Believed Dangerous Explosives Are Being Imported From Russia.

PERMISSION OBTAINED TO INCREASE ARMY

Government is Thought to Have Traced Conspirators in Recent Outrage.

SOPHIA, Bulgaria, April 23.— Travellers report quiet throughout the peninsula except along the frontier with Russia, but at Black Sea ports numerous discoveries of dangerous explosives have been made. These travellers say that the Bulgarian government has been importuned from Russia. A careful watch is being kept along the Bulgarian coast by motor boats and seaplanes to see that no land arms and munitions are ferried.

The allied ambassadors here have issued a general order to increase her army, the enlistment of which will be carried on throughout the country. The civilian population shows eagerness to assist the frontiersmen, and each soldier is guarded at night by military police.

A few weeks ago the government of Bulgaria, in a statement of its aims, said that authority of the government had succeeded in tracing the persons responsible for the outrages committed in the cathedral outburst. Several of them have been shot and others captured, but much complete avoidance should be comparatively easy. The plotters worked in small groups, and the respective groups met at different times. It was the work of one group to manufacture explosives, another to carry out the plan, a third to blow up buildings, a fourth to spread panic, and a fifth to bribe persons likely to be useful in the explosion in the cathedral community and to protect successful.

Are Notified.

All those involved in the plot had been notified that about 100 men were to be held in custody in Sofia and would be the signal for the general outbreak. The cathedral outrage occurred on the date, but the principal government leaders were not present, so the courage of the majority of the conspirators was not sufficient to fulfill the tasks allotted to them.

The actual perpetrators of the outrage, however, were not sent to prison immediately afterward, but their punishment was to be delayed for a time to take refuge in various places previously chosen. There they were to be held in custody, but one of them has already pleaded guilty.

Bulgaria is now being governed by the military and all trials will be by court martial. The trials begin today and it is certain that sentences of extreme severity will pass.

London Views.

LONDON, April 23.—The Herald, organ of the Labor party, this morning made a two-column statement made by Mr. J. H. MacKenzie and P. D. Malone, members of the executive committee of the Labor party at the time of the explosion in the cathedral and who returned to England an interval ago into the Bulgarian situation. Messrs. Neary and McLean, members of the delegation Wednesday from Sofia, reported to the Canadian press.

The statement says that Charles S. McLean, member of the Labor party in Sofia, W. A. F. Erskine, the British Labour representative, and others were doing all that was possible to stop the "furious reprisals against the Bulgarians."

The statement adds that the "fanaticism of the King and the King's Government in the Sofia cathedral plot" had produced a series of reactions in Jugoslavia which are greatly similar to those in Bulgaria between the two governments, to be on the part of each express."

It is asserted in the statement that the plot was organized by the King and the Government in the Sofia cathedral plot, and said to be of Communist tendencies. Mr. Neary said that when their case was heard in court he would be compelled to admit the affair was a practical joke, but his counsel partly connected to the so-called plot.

"One thousand or more have been killed in Bulgaria," he said. "They killed their coach as he was coming across the plain, March 10, and buried away in a hole and confined him for several days."

MOTOR CYCLE OUTPUT.

LONDON, April 23.—Daily Express states that the British cycle industry has beaten that of the rest of the world.

"Our thousand or more have loads of condemned men cut out and were killed mostly outside the city."

"Perhaps they killed some guilty, but a million could be a fool to allow himself to fall into such hands."

JURY FIND CHINESE NOT GUILTY OF MURDER

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 23.—Charles L. Ching, resident of Victoria, was this evening found not guilty of the murder of David Lew, prominent Chinese merchant.

The jury returned a verdict 35 minutes after the trial began.

David Lew was shot to death on Pender Street in Chinatown on the evening of March 10. He had just emerged from a restaurant with a friend.

The verdict leaves unsolved the mystery as to who shot David Lew. While the jury was deliberating, Ching was lured from the box and was immediately seized by the police. Mr. E. MacLean, in summing up, told the jury to return to the box if they had any doubt that three or four Chinese witnesses were deliberately conspiring to have Ching hung.

Severe Spring Storm Sweeps Over Butte; Traffic Demoralized

BUTTE, Mont., April 23.—Swept by the most severe spring snow storm in its history, Central Montana tonight was blanketed with snow 12 inches deep, 17 inches in Butte. Traffic and telephone wires were down for several hours and several small towns were completely cut off from communication.

Legislators of B. C. Marshall their Forces at Grand Forks for Bye-Election.

Three Hundred Odd Votes Will Decide Issue in Coming Polling.

GRAND FORKS, B. C., April 23.—Getting in touch with the outcome of the bye-election campaign here, the legislators claim future claims against the government of the district will be held in suspense until the election is over. The members of the house, addressing the free and neutrally minded voters in their habitat, Dr. W. A. MacRae, H. D. Twiss and Otto Bruhn, Tonawanda members under Harry H. Miller, and Fred and Paul Mattingly, viewing with alarm the result of the election, the foot of the combined riding is being ridden.

FARM THE FORESTS

Canada's forests provide timber and other products every year said to be worth $425,000,000. They will go on doing that indefinitely if they are farmed; that is, if trees are treated as plants which require a certain time to mature are protected against fire and insects and are harvested against market price. If that is not done the forest will be away in the course of a few years, as it has done in other countries, and the grand-children of the present generation of Canadians will have to export money and import timber products—if they can at that time find timber products anywhere in the world to import.

FREE TRADE IN ARMS

Moscow has declined to participate in the conference at Geneva to consider suppression of the traffic in arms. Without the privilege of importing rifles and ammunition from the United States the Mexicans could hardly effect a change of government. The "out" is now the only alternative. And, as the fact in which happens to be in power never knows how soon it will be out and wanting to get in again, it is to the interest of all concerned to keep the inlets open. Any suppression that is done in that quarter will have to be done by the authorities at Washington, as the prime concern of the possible powers would be to do what he can to minimize damages when the next door won't settle their domestic differences by starting a free-for-all fight.

A MAKE-SHIFT COMBINATION

France's what-not cabinet was given a vote of confidence by the Chamber of Deputies. The figures are impressive—191 votes to 215. In the circumstances the vote means nothing more than that the deputies consent to tolerate the coalition for the time because nothing better—and perhaps nothing else—is in sight. Having thrust Poincaré into the Premiership when he himself could do nothing to help him, the party which had cast him out now wants to bring the members back to him, and still more to France, an opportunity to carry on while he may. That his term will be long is scarcely assured. That it will be troubled seems sufficiently assured. It can live only while its disunity continues. The reality today is that neutrality and neutrality between M. Briand and M. Gallieni is a fragile condition.

To outsiders the main interest in the policy of the new Government centres in the declaration that an effort will be made to arrange a settlement of the inter-allied debts in connection with the carrying out of the Dardanelles. To the French, however, that since should assume a part of its prospective receipts from Germany to its creditors, there will be gratification visible in London and New York. But the plan which would evoke such enthusiasm abroad might not prolong the life of the coalition. Poincaré's position is that he can no longer be forced to loan the war which followed since the Herriot Government fell into collapse. If Gallieni proposes to hand over reparations funds to Britain or the United States, and levy taxes to pay the war damage to France, property there is likely to be another upset.

A SHAKE UP AT LETHBRIDGE

As was to be expected, there has been a shake-up at the top of the Lethbridge jail. A new warden, deputy, and medical officer have been appointed, as the result of the death of an inmate and the judicial investigation which followed. The public will hardly be satisfied if the remedial measures are not thorough. The appointment of a warden, as well as of jail officials, from the evidence produced at the inquiry is seems that the treatment of prisoners has been left largely to the discretion of the keepers. Some latitude must be allowed, of course, to those who have to administer discipline among a collection of men who are not likely to be amenable to law. It should not be allowable, but an aged decrepit man in a dark cell and kept him there for a solid week for no other reason than that he persisted in shouting when accommodated in the ordinary quarters.

The code of regulations for the governance of the jail officials should have been drawn up long ago, which would serve at once as assurance to the public that cruelty would not be practiced and as protection to the official who kept within bounds of his instructions. There will have also been a shake-up at the top of the police force in charge of the jail, as surely enough, as the institutions are being run as they should be. The suggestion that a committee of private citizens make a periodical tour of the jails, hear complaints and view conditions is not a very hopeful remedy.

The conduct of the keeper of the Lethbridge jail, in charge, and can rear neither care. They ought to be under official supervision, as any other undertaking of government. Apparently the one at Lethbridge did not get the mind or the amount of supervision that was called for.

ADMISSION—ON CONDITION

The Government of British Columbia has asked the immigration officials to refuse admission to the new Doukhobor leader unless he undertakes to make the Doukhobors respect the law, especially the school law. The condition, while unusual, is not unprecedented. The Doukhobors are the leaders of the sect has over its name. If the new Peter inherits the prestige as well as the place of the old one the Doukhobors will send their children to school if he tells them to, and will not send them if he tells them not to. Practice makes perfect, and the Doukhobors are absolute rulers so far as the obedience of their subjects was concerned. When his authority was challenged it was from without, not from within. That the man in lead should be asked to pledge himself to rule in complete accord with the laws of the land is a test that may fairly be applied when he seeks admission. If he refuses to promise that he may properly be told to go whence he came.

For the matter of that, there would be no harm in requiring him to write some admissions to the authorities to definitely place his personal observance of its laws. We are opening the gates to a strange and wonderful mixture of Europeans, and they are coming through in a stream. Many of them come from lands where the rights of men are denied in a manner to impose an obligation to be dredged. Unhappily some of them are sent here for the explicit purpose of stirring up revolutionary sentiment and paving the way for that by trying to break down respect for law and authority. It is to be hoped that such persons cannot enter the country without pledging their allegiance to the country and its institutions. But they may live here indefinitely without becoming citizens' sons on political propaganda and foment revolutionary feeling. It would do no harm, and might prove useful, to have those under some form of restraint. If they are ever caught at the port of entry with the shadow of pledging a strict observance of law or of continuing their voyage back to the place they started from.

The flowers that bloom in the spring would be even more welcome if they did not bloom a bit earlier in this particular spring.

Bavaria is paying for having escaped the fate of Germany. Whatever else it did, the war freed Germany from militarist rule and it will be the fault of the German people if it is ever re-established. The old order maintained dominance at Sophia and is now the governing force there. Hence the bomb-throwing, and the wholesale shooting.

Some of the land-lubbers who were passengers on the Homeric think the sailors should have risked their lives in an attempt to save the crew of the U-boat. But, if they were not land-lubbers, why?

The sailor who was to put out in a boat in that sea was not to risk one's life at all but to throw it away. Sailors do not have to go to land to learn where heroism ends and suicide begins on the troubled deep.

The Provincial Minister of Labor says the employment bureaus cannot fill the orders for help which are coming in from the farmers. Spring farm work has hardly got started yet, and if the labor supply that is available for such work is not sufficient, then the farmer must either hire his own officers versed in polar conditions and adding to his costs, or let the work go unperformed.

Lieut. Commandant Stephen O. S. Vassallo, aide to Rear Admiral Fred C. Bowes, Lake coast guard commanding officer, has been appointed to command the new craft provisions for car and truck drivers on the ice roads.

Chief of the United States army chemical service says that particular branch of the art of war is being developed with the idea of impacting the people of green cities rather than the people of the hills. Perhaps the most fatal and unpredictable of the kind of the armament will shower a town with a harmless anaesthetic that will send its inhabitants off into pleasant dream while his friends in the infantry and cavalry branches move in and take peaceful possession.

While the business of killing and of chemical warfare is up to civilians it is allowed at all the only sensible purpose of fire is to kill and cripple as many of them as possible.

Nominations for the by-election in the Federal electoral district of Edmonton were held today and acclamation. The by-election was necessary as when Sir Wm. Laurier became Prime Minister he again stood re-elect at his constituency. The Conservatives, too, are realising the great honor done to the seat.

Leigh, N.W.—The city of Edmonton is never without a sensation. First there was Calfee, who for a man was hanged. Then there was Lawrence Bangs who was a certain constituent who, for stealing city lots, ran away and got married. Now there is a prominent, grown weary from their labours, who have resigned without any notice.

The local baseball men are beginning to wake up and are getting organized. The first game of the season between the old and new players in the city.

The new baseball team, getting together, strong teams have to be formed, but in an emergency could pull it off.

LETTER FROM MRS. JOHN ALLEN

evidently is a staunch church member, and your mother and he go to church every Sunday evening, and every Wednesday evening.

They are both very much interested in politics, and after much consultation they decided that it was an easy job to make out almost any kind of speech to me from my great-grandmother.

Three of these were from the Canadian Legion, the fourth a team from the R.C.M.C. The latest team of the Legion is the one that won the trophy, the Reids cup, one of the two given to the Legion. The Thorntons cup and the second for the W.A.S.P. Railway committee.
